

THE WORK ON THE NEW COURT HOUSE

Will Not Be Completed For at Least Two or Three Months, Is the Expectation.

SKILLED WORKMEN NOW BUSY

With the Scagliola, the Plaster of Paris Trimmings and Other Fancy Work.

The court house improvement will not be completed quite as soon as expected. While the work is being pushed it is believed that the building will not be finished for two or three months. It is thought the work will be completed by the time the annual soldiers' reunion is held at Brownstown and the suggestion is being made at the county seat that the dedication take place at the time of that celebration. No plans for the exercises have been made yet. The cornice and slate work on the tower is about finished and this will complete the exterior work with the exception of the painting.

More carpenters were added to the contractor's force this week and are at work putting in casings and laying hard wood floors.

The iron supports and railings for the stairways are in and ready for the marble steps and the work of putting in marble bases in the corridors and lobbies has begun.

The Brownstown Banner says:

More different classes of skilled workmen are now employed at the court house than at any time since the work begun, and here and there the finishing touches of the skilled mechanic are being put on.

The scagliola men arrived last week and are getting ready to polish the round columns and pilasters in the upper and lower lobbies. Scagliola is a composition made to imitate the more costly kinds of marble and is more expensive than many grades of marble. It will require about four or five weeks for these men to complete their part of the work.

The plasterers will probably finish their work on the second floor this week, and the man who has been making the plaster of Paris mouldings and trimmings for the ceilings in the court room and lobbies and composition caps for the columns and pilasters, is practically done with his part of the work.

Funeral Friday.

The funeral of Lewis Bollinger will be held Friday afternoon. The services will be conducted at the residence at 2:30 by Elder Harley Jackson. At the cemetery the Odd Fellows will be in charge of the services.

I. O. O. F. Notice!

AFTER BAD EGGS

Inspectors Have Started Out Over the State.

All dealers in Jackson county who handle eggs will do well now to watch that no bad eggs are around their establishments.

Field inspectors in the employ of the food and drug department of the state board of health have armed themselves with apparatus for candling eggs, and, quitting this city, where they have been engaged in sanitary inspections for a month, have gone to their regular districts to give virtually all their attention through the hot weather, to the bad egg question. Among the specific instructions received by the inspectors was one urging them to prosecute grocers and produce dealers who are found with bad eggs in their possession.

"The small grocer is the person who is giving us the most trouble in handling the bad egg question," said H. E. Barnard, head of the department. "Many of the small grocers buy eggs from farmers' wives, and they will not candle the eggs in the presence of the women, because they fear they will lose customers. Some of them candle the eggs later and throw out the bad ones, but most of them sell the eggs to shippers just as they are bought."

"The field men are instructed to test eggs found in grocery stores and to prosecute where bad eggs are found. It will be no excuse for the grocer to say that he intended to candle the eggs, or to sell them 'loss off.' The egg situation is so bad that stringent measures must be adopted to insure good eggs on the market. We can not, at this time, go direct to the farmers, so we must get as near to them as possible. If the grocers can be induced not to buy eggs except 'loss off,' the farmers soon will learn to care for the eggs and not to offer bad ones for sale."

The Fly Responsible.

Jerry Anderson is cutting 120 acres of wheat at his farm south of Seymour and does not believe the yield will average over 15 bushels to the acre. He is confident he would have had a 40 bushel yield had it not been for the work of the fly last fall and again during the dry weather some time ago. The fly this spring weakened the stalks and as a consequence the wind storm soon afterward blew down much of the crop. Last year wheat grown in adjoining fields yielded 33 bushels to the acre.

At Cabin.

The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the German M. E. Church, went to Shieldstown this morning to spend the day at the cabin, fishing. Rev. A. Knauff accompanied the party.

Still Advancing.

The price of new potatoes has doubled within the past week here and elsewhere. The price of old potatoes is two and a half times greater than it was seven days ago.

NARROW ESCAPE

For Swindler Who Failed in His Game Here.

The stranger giving his name as F. M. Parks who rushed into the Seymour interurban station last Friday and made an unsuccessful effort to have Agent Chambers cash an express order which it later developed, had been raised, narrowly escaped capture by the officers at Jeffersonville, it is learned.

The order which was originally purchased at Columbus for $1, was raised to $21 and the man tried to cash it in Seymour, Scottsburg and Sellersburg and succeeded in the latter town. The Louisville and Jeffersonville police were notified when the fraud was discovered. The Jeffersonville officers boarded the car at the first stop and arrested a traveling man by mistake. The man who was wanted was seated with the man who was arrested. By the time the latter had cleared himself the real swindler had escaped.

RECAPTURED

Tunnelton Youth Surrendered to Officers by Girl.

Officers on the lookout for Oscar Cooper, a Tunnelton youth, who Tuesday escaped from Constable Cal Boyles, were surprised this morning when Mamie Bailey, the girl who caused the paternity charge to be made against the young man, came leading him into the presence of the officers at the Monon station.

He was immediately placed under arrest by Policeman Wells and Constable Boyles and taken down town by the former. The young man expressed a willingness to marry the girl and as he had been caught without the necessary funds with which to have the marital knot tied, had to call on some of his friends for a loan.

Cooper Tuesday morning escaped from Constable Cal Boyles at Tunnelton, while they were looking for a bondsman for the former. Cooper seems to have come to this city immediately and the girl must have located him here this morning.

The fact that the young man was suffering from tuberculosis caused a hitch in securing the necessary papers, but after securing legal advice on the subject, the Clerk issued the license. They were married by Justice Iseninger at his office on South I street, this morning at 9 o'clock. The young man seemed willing enough to enter into the arrangement for the marriage; the objections seemed to be principally from his family.—Bedford Mail.

W. C. T. U.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. G. H. Anderson, superintendent of flower missions Wednesday afternoon and the program was entirely devoted to that department of W. C. T. U. work. Beautiful bouquets of sweet flowers, a card with scripture promise and a bow of white ribbon were sent to all sick and shut-ins reported. The readings were both instructive and interesting. The quartette gave two numbers which were greatly enjoyed. A good attendance and much interest was shown in the work. Quarterly mothers' meeting will be held June 28 with Mrs. Hadley.

Dr. George Knapp has returned from New York City and will be at the Conner house, Brownstown, Saturday, June 24. j23d&w

ITALIAN GIRL ARRIVED HERE

Wednesday Evening From Kokomo, Ind., Without Money and Without Friends.

TRYING TO REACH OOLITIC

Her Mother Died in Pennsylvania and Father Deserted His Nine Children.

Without money and not knowing a person in the city, Lena Oreka, a young Italian girl arrived in Seymour Wednesday evening over the Pennsylvania from Kokomo.

She was tired, hungry and bewildered and apparently did not know what to do or where to go. She was trying to reach Oolitic where she claims to have relatives, but she had no money with which to continue her journey.

Ernest Peters finally took pity on her and took her to the Peters boarding house for the night and this morning Trustee Steinwedel bought her a ticket to Oolitic.

The girl told a pitiful story. Since her earliest recollection, her family had lived in abject poverty and with miserable surroundings. Their home was in one of the mining towns in Pennsylvania. Four months ago her mother died leaving a family of nine children. The father soon afterward deserted them and they were set adrift in the world. The girl succeeded in getting into communication with an uncle in California and he sent her $15.

Soon afterward she started to Oolitic but her money only carried her to Kokomo. The trustee or some one else bought her a ticket as far as Seymour. She is not absolutely certain what her reception will be at Oolitic but hopes to find herself among friends. From her story her experience in life has been a rough and unhappy one.

Shoshone Land Opening.

On the 23rd of this month the Government will open to homestead entry a choice tract in the famous Big Horn Basin of Wyoming under what is known as the Shoshone irrigation project. Two units of the project have already been settled and water is now ready for delivery to the lands of the third unit. This section of the project, which includes some of the most desirable land in the entire district, lies near the town of Ralston, and none of the farms are more than a mile from the railroad.

Several hundred families have made their homes on this project and those who are successful in securing a farm in this new area will have all the advantages found in other progressive and well-settled regions.

On this project the Reclamation Service has built the highest dam in the world. It completely blocks the course of the Shoshone River, and the reservoir thus created provides water for all of the lands. The U. S. Reclamation Service, Chicago, is furnishing information regarding the project.

DOCTOR OF DIVINITY

Rev. F. A. Steele Given Honorary Degree by Moores Hill.

Rev. Festus Alexander Steele of this city, district superintendent of the Methodist church, was honored his week by receiving from Moores Hill College the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity.

The degree was conferred during the commencement week exercises. It is an honor much desired by ministers and comes to but a small percent of them. Dr. Steele is certainly worthy of it and he deeply appreciates the recognition given him by Moores Hill. But one other honorary degree was conferred by the college this year.

Doctor of Divinity.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred by Franklin College at the commencement exercises Wednesday on Rev. J. W. Clevenger, of Red Oak, Iowa, Rev. J. H. Deere of Colorado, and Rev. W. B. Pope of Franklin.

Rev. J. W. Clevenger was pastor of the First Baptist church here, closing his work about ten years ago. He was held in high esteem by his church and by Seymour citizens and his friends will be glad for his new honors.

Rev. J. H. Deere preached here once or twice several years ago and later was pastor of the Shelbyville church.

Rev. W. B. Pope is the Baptist Superintendent of Missions and is favorably known by many of the Baptist people of Seymour.

OVER EIGHT LINES

An I. & L. Car Will Pass on Trip to Michigan.

Traction officials of Indiana are preparing for a trip in special cars to St. Joe, Michigan to attend the meeting of the Central Electric Railway association.

The run is to be made by an Indianapolis & Louisville traction company's car from Louisville to the meeting and will be the first one made over that distance by an electric car, driven by its own motors the entire distance. The car will cross the river over the Big Four bridge, leased by the Louisville & Southern Indiana Traction Company; from Jeffersonville to Sellersburg over the line of the Louisville & Northern Railway and Lighting Company; thence to Seymour on its own tracks, the Indianapolis & Louisville; to Indianapolis by the Indianapolis, Columbus & Southern, thence following the same route as the other special cars, making a total of eight different traction lines over which the car will pass.

Realized on Deaths.

According to an insurance report just published, Crothersville is in the list of Indiana towns in which over $10,000 in life insurance was paid out during 1910. The amount received by beneficiaries in that town during the year was $18,250. The largest amount paid out for the death of any individual in the state was $227,600 which was carried by John H. ELISHA GRIMES Formerly of Crothersville, in a Shooting Affray.

The Vincennes Commercial has the following to say regarding a shooting affray in which Elisha Grimes, formerly of Crothersville, participated:

Elisha Grimes, a grocer of Tenth and Hickman streets, and Tom Bouchie exchanged three shots Tuesday evening about 7:30 at the store of the former, in an argument over a woman, said to have been Edna Stuckens, sweetheart of the latter. Supt. Adams, plainclothesmen Blunk and Hughes and acting Captain Woods, who hurried to the scene of the shooting as soon as notified of the same by Desk Sergeant Evans, arrested both men under charges of assault and battery with intent to kill. Both have given bond in the sum of $500 for their appearance and were released. The name of Rebecca Grimes appears on the bond of Grimes, and that of Edna Stuckens on that of Bouchie's.

Grimes is said to have made a remark about Bouchie's friend, which was damaging to her character and Bouchie, according to the best of information went to Grimes' place for a settlement. Grimes ordered Bouchie out of the store and shot at him through the front window after he had left it. Bouchie returned a shot and then Grimes fired a second time. Fortunately neither man was hit.

Benton who for fifty years has been a resident of Washington, and for forty-eight years an employee in the United States Pension Office, yesterday celebrated his eighty-second birthday. Mr. Benton was born in Brownstown, Ind., June 10, 1829. He came to Washington in March, 1861, and was appointed to a clerkship in the Census Bureau. He was transferred to the Pension Office, April 9, 1863 and was chief of the invalid branch during 1875 and 1876.

When the board of review was organized in 1882, he was assigned to duty on that body, and has been connected with it ever since.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

THE GIGGLING GIRL.

It was on the street car.
All in one seat, a bunch of three joyous girls giggled and giggled. Self conscious, merry eyed, shy, but irrepressible, they gurgled and giggled.

Giggling things are gregarious. Two or more must be gathered to make a good giggle, and there must be occasion for sitting on the giggle test it escape noisily.

Giggles must be gagged.
On the seat in front of me a straitlaced woman watched the girls with evident disapproval. I could distinctly see how she elevated her nose presently to say to the woman next to her,
"I think girls who giggle on slight provocation are silly and shallow."

As if a giggle required great provocation!

Those girls were bubbling over, and every time they caught one another's eyes—at times they dared not look—they could do no other than let off steam or burst the boiler.

The gay gigglers!

They were under pressure both from inside and out—risibles inside and stern glances outside. They just had to lift something, even as the teakettle lid is lifted.

Silly? Shallow?

Frivolous they were doubtless, for they were at the frivolous age, but as for being shallow or feeble minded—

Why, they were merely healthy. A boy gives vent to his vitality by a whoop or a somersault, but a girl must sit on the safety valve and let off just a little giggle.

Let her giggle.
It is the nature of her. When she is older she will have learned to put a governor on her risibles.

Did you ever know a gifted giggler who was a groucher?

Her effervescent sense of humor is the girl's salvation. Have a care how you try to make a staid lady out of a child. She sees humor that you are too old to see or enjoy. She has nothing to do but see things as they are, and things as they are to a healthy minded miss are funny.

Quench not the spirit.
Let her giggle. Let her giggle and grow. She needs the giggle, and the world needs her.

Besides—

All too soon will the blithesome, bubbling soul of her be quenched in the stern duties of wifehood and motherhood.

Let her giggle.

Giggles have gumption.

PASTOR LOSES CHOICE CHARGE

Had Too Many "Affinities"
Among Girls.

SENSATION AT M'KEESPORT

Exclusive Presbyterian Church Disorganized by Actions of Pastor in His Relations Toward Young Society
Girls of His Congregation, His Presbytery Voting That He Had Outlived His Usefulness There.

Pittsburg, June 14.—By order of the Redstone presbytery, the Rev. Dr.
Walter E. Price, pastor of the exclusive McKeesport First Presbyterian church, has been ousted from his charge. Dr. Price, who was one of the most prominent ministers in western Pennsylvania, was reported to have "affinities" among the young society girls of his congregation. He is married and has a family.

Following sensational rumors Dr.
Price disappeared from McKeesport.
During his absence it was reported that his wife found notes in his pocket written by prominent young women of the city, in which they begged him not to desert them. This almost drove the wife frantic and there was some talk at the time that she thought of asking for a divorce. A few days ago Dr. Price returned to McKeesport and said he had been wrong and intended to leave McKeesport with his family. The women of the congregation cried and begged him to stay. His case was taken up by the Redstone presbytery. Many ministers asked that the case should not be gone into. A petition signed by the women members of the McKeesport church begged the presbytery to allow Dr. Price to remain as their pastor, but despite their pleading the preacher was asked to leave.

SHOCK TO HUSBAND

Engineer Arrived Off His Run to Find
Wife Murdered in Bed.

White Plains, N. Y., June 14.—Mrs.
William W. Simmons, twenty-six years old, wife of an engineer on the Harlem railroad, was found strangled to death at her home. The husband arrived off his run just as his wife's body was being taken from the house.

Mrs. Simmons's body was found lying on the bed in her room and the things in the room were in perfect order. The bed was covered with blood, while scratches on her body showed that she had made a hard struggle before her death. A search of the house revealed that a roll of bills had been taken from the dining room, while the rear door of the house was found open. The two daughters of Mrs. Simmons, aged four and six years, slept in an adjoining room while the murderer strangled their mother.

SUSPICIONS AROUSED

Mrs. Henkle's Arrest Starts a Second Investigation.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 14.—Following the arrest at Delaware, O., of Mrs.
Jessie Way Henkle, on the charge of administering arsenic to her stepdaughter there, relatives here of Edward S. Way, former husband of Mrs.
Henkle, who died April 19, 1909, have asked the authorities to exhume Way's body and examine it for traces of poisoning.

Way's relatives say he became ill suddenly, although he had been in robust health. Dr. H. E. Wilson, who attended Way, is now in Omaha, but his brother, Dr. R. M. Wilson, says there were suspicious circumstances surrounding Way's death. Dr. Wilson also treated Mrs. Way at his hospital.

Killed Kentucky Timber Man.

Huntington, W. Va., June 14.—Rev.
William Gerry, of Lincoln county, who defended his rights as a "squatter" to a tract of timber land by killing Clarence Ford, a Kentucky timber man, who had purchased the timber rights on the Gerry land, was found guilty of manslaughter at Hamlin and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years. Ford attempted to cut the timber when Gerry, who is a Baptist preacher, shot and killed him.

No Evidence Against Him.

New York, June 14.—Henry A.
Scheib has been freed on a charge of slaying his wife whose badly decomposed body was found in the bath tub of their long unused apartment a couple of weeks ago. There was no evidence connecting Scheib with the woman's death.

Clerk Charged With Forgery.

Wheeling, W. Va., June 14.—E. W.
Nichols, president of the board of education, swore out a warrant in Justice Morrell's court charging John P. Lowman, township clerk, with forging orders to which, it is alleged, Nichols's name was signed. Lowman was arrested, but gave bond.

Kentucky National Guard Changes.

Frankfort, Ky., June 14.—Adjutant

fantry, at Owensboro and Company L, Third Infantry, at Barbourville. A company will be mustered in the Kentucky national guard at Pineville.

ney Baker and members of the local

KNOX IS CALLED ON TO EXPLAIN

His "O. K." Appears On Unsigned Voucher.

YOUNG HALE GOT THE MONEY

Mysterious Payment of $5,000 to Senator's Son From State Department's Canadian Boundary Fund Has Started an Inquiry on the Part of Congressional Committee—Long Missing Artist's Voucher Has Turned Up.

Washington, June 14.—Before the house committee on expenditures in the state department, Secretary of State Knox will appear to be questioned concerning a peculiar payment of $5,000 by the department to Frederick Hale, a son of former Senator Eugene Hale of Maine. He will also be asked about the mysterious reappearance of the long lost voucher for $2,450 in the Day portrait case. Secretary Knox was subpoenaed as the result of disclosures before the committee.

The committee wants to know why the Canadian boundary fund was increased by $5,000 at the instance of the state department without the knowledge of Dr. O. H. Tittman, superintendent of the coast and geodetic survey, who has charge of disbursements of the fund, and why this $5,000 was turned over to Frederick Hale on no other authority than Mr. Knox's O. K. on a slip of paper pinned to an unsigned voucher.

This voucher bears only the signature of Mr. Hale, showing that he received the money, the two places where the official signatures are customarily placed being vacant. The slip bearing Mr. Knox's O. K. contains Mr. Hale's expense account and compensation aggregating $6,182.80. There is a "discount" of $1,182.80, and Mr. Hale received the balance. The committee also wants to know what this discount means.

Senator Hale was chairman of the powerful appropriation committee in the senate when the estimates of Dr. Tittman for the Canadian boundary fund were increased $5,000 without his knowledge. Dr. Tittman told the committee he had never seen any evidence of the younger Mr. Hale's activities for which he got $5,000.

Chairman Hamlin and his associates on the committee said they were "thunderstruck" when they learned that the Day portrait voucher had been discovered lying on the floor of the disbursing clerk's office in the state department.

This voucher, withdrawn from the department files in 1906 by order of Secretary Root, had not been seen since then. Mr. Root testified he did not know what had become of it. Secretary Knox said the same thing. A careful search failed to disclose it. Yet just one week ago, the committee has learned, it was found beside a waste basket in the disbursing office of the department. No one seems to know how it got there or to be able to suggest who has had it for the last five years, but it has reappeared and, strangely enough, had pinned to it a brief explanation by Colonel Michael that he spent the difference between $2,450, which he drew in cash to pay for the oil portrait of former Secretary of State Day, and the $350 which he actually paid to the artist who painted the portrait, upon the order of Secretary Day. He does not go into details.

The state department has issued a statement in which they say that the payment to Hale was "entirely usual and simple." The statement says further that Secretary Knox notified Chairman Hamlin that he had found the Day portrait voucher.

"I observe," Mr. Hamlin continued, "that Hale charges for several trips to Washington. Did you ever see him when he came on?" Dr. Tittman said he never had.

A Beautiful Hope For You.
Every day is a new beginning. Every morn is the world made new. Ye who are weary of sorrow and sinning. Here is a beautiful hope for you. A hope for me and a hope for you.

All the past things are past and over. The tasks are done, and the tears are shed. Yesterday's errors let yesterday cover. Yesterday's wounds which smarted and bled. Are healed with the healing which night hath shed.

Every day is a fresh beginning. Listen, my soul, to the glad refrain. And spite of old sorrow and older sinning. And puzzles forecasted and possible pain. Take heart with the day and begin again.

Only the new days are our own. Today is ours, and today alone. —Susan Coolidge.

The Doctor's Twins.
An Irish doctor while enjoying a holiday in the country took the opportunity, along with a friend, to go fishing. During operations the doctor's sinker came off and was lost. Here was a dilemma—no sinker, no more fishing that day. Happy thought—he had a bottle in his pocket. The bottle was filled with water, carefully corked and sent down on its mission.

After a few minutes' interval the doctor had a bite and pulled up his line at racing speed, finding a fine pair of fish, one on each hook.

"Ha, doctor, twins this time," exclaimed his companion.

"Yes," quoth the doctor, "and brought up on the bottle too."

DE PAUW UNIVERSITY RAISING LARGE FUND

Pledges for More Than Half Already Received.

Greencastle, Ind., June 14.—The announcement that $244,500, more than one-half the sum required, has already been pledged in the DePauw university endowment fund campaign, was an interesting feature of commencement week at DePauw university. This gratifying announcement was made at the annual meeting of the board of trustees and visitors. One thousand one hundred and eighty-seven pledges have been signed, ranging in amounts from $1 to $10,000. Four for $10,000 have been received. DePauw students are taking an active interest in the campaign, and have signed notes to the total of several thousand dollars, which are to be redeemed after graduation.

Yesterday was alumni day. Chapel in the morning was followed by the alumni dinner at Woman's hall. The alumni varsity baseball game was played in the afternoon. In the evening there were class, fraternity and sorority reunions. The senior play was also given last evening.

Traveling Man's Wife Uses Whip
When She Finds Him With Widow.

Danville, Ill., June 14.—As Mrs. Laura Whyte and John P. Smith stepped from a cab in front of Mrs. Whyte's residence at 3 a. m., Mrs. Smith, who had followed them, leaped out of another vehicle and lashed both of them with a whip.

Mrs. Whyte said she had been to Hoopston on business and accidentally met Smith on her return. She is the widow of Attorney George Whyte, who killed himself a year ago by cutting his throat.

Smith and his wife reside at Ridge Farm. He is a traveling representative of the Empire Oil company.

Chose Dangerous Resting Place.

De Kalb, Ill., June 14.—Walter Harmer, aged 26, was killed by a fast freight. Harmer had purchased a new pair of shoes and started home. They pinched his feet and he sat down on the railroad track to take them off. An approaching train struck him.

Changed His Mind.

When Representative Brown was practicing law at Newton he fell out with the district judge over some trivial matter. One day the court wanted him as a witness in a case and sent the sheriff after him.

"Just tell the judge to go to —," said Brown when the sheriff told him to come to court.

"All right," said the sheriff.

The latter wheeled around and started toward the courthouse. Brown turned and looked at him. The longer he looked the more convinced was he he had made a mistake. So he started after the sheriff. But the sheriff was too fast for him and reached the courtroom unmolested.

"May it please the court," said the sheriff, "Mr. Brown told me to tell the court to go to —."

Just then Brown rushed through the door to the courtroom, and before anything could be said or done by the judge Brown remarked:

"May it please your honor, I have changed my mind. You needn't go. I'll testify."

The incident caused so much merriment that the staid old judge forgot the insult and ordered Brown to the witness stand to testify.—Kansas City Journal.

WILL ENLARGE THE MOVEMENT

State Game Preserves to Be Extended.

EXPERIMENT IS SUCCESSFUL

State Fish and Game Commissioner Miles Announces That He Will During the Coming Season Establish Several Additional Preserves in Various Counties—State Now Has More Than 300 Preserves.

Indianapolis, June 14.—Although George W. Miles, state fish and game commissioner, announced some time ago that he would not attempt the establishment of additional game preserves until the experiments now being tried on the present preserves had an opportunity to show whether they would produce good results, he has announced that he will during the coming season establish several additional preserves in various counties in the northern part of the state. Preston H. Miles, son of the commissioner, it is understood, is to have charge of the work of establishing the preserves. The state now has more than 300 preserves, where experiments with Hungarian partridges are being carried on.

BIPLANE FISH.

Went a Hundred Feet Through Air Before Returning to the Water.

Arriving at Seattle from the halibut banks is the fishing schooner Shamrock with a seven foot flying fish known to have done more than 100 feet above the surface of the water.

A dory from the schooner was watching lines set for halibut. The dory suddenly swirled round and round. Instantly the men tried to cut the strong fishing line, but at that moment a long, finny, fishlike creature hooked like a halibut arose from the water and circled the dory. It dived in the water, rose again and, spreading its birdlike wings, sailed for 100 feet at a height of four feet from the water.

Other dory men came to the assistance of the first, and after twenty minutes the fish was captured. The fish is nearly round and has a long fin twelve inches wide extending along the back for half the distance of the body. Across the top of this fin is another ten inches long set at right angles. The fins resemble a biplane.

The fish is long, and its head and mouth resemble those of the fresh water pike. The bait used was a herring.

MONKEYS TO PICK COTTON.

Experiment Will Be Made in Georgia by French Experts.

An attempt is to be made in Fulton county, Ga., by French cotton experts to teach monkeys to pick cotton. If the experiment succeeds a colony of monkeys will be imported and put to work.

The idea was suggested by the antics of a pet chimpanzee carried by a farmer boy into the fields. The little animal, after frisking around for a time and watching the negroes at work, began of its own accord to pick the cotton with almost incredible rapidity.

Animal trainers find it very easy to teach monkeys to perform any manual trick or labor. By utilizing monkey labor the cost of cotton harvesting would be infinitely less than with human labor.

LOWER CALIFORNIA NOW IN LIMELIGHT

Active Warfare Expected There
Most Any Day.

El Paso, Tex., June 14.—According to officials of the Madero government, recruiting agents hiring men for the service of E. Floras Magon in Lower California, are operating here. Men have been operating in the cheap lodging houses, offering Americans $2 a day and their transportation to Lower California to join the Magonist ranks. There are said to be three recruiting agencies, but the recruiting officers move from time to time, as they fear interference by the United States secret service men. A report has also been received that many Mexican laborers near Carrizozo, N. M., were recruited and taken to a ranch near Ojinaga, preparing for transportation to Lower California.

General B. J. Villjoen, who is to head the expedition that will proceed from Juarez to Lower California to suppress the Magonista movement, is awaiting advice from Madero. He telegraphed Madero to supply four field pieces and he would leave here with 400 men, join Juan Cabral in Sonora, who has 200 men, and proceed against the Magon forces.

Another Aviator Falls.

Rome, June 14.—Frey, the German aviator, was badly injured near Lake Vico. When he struck the ground his arms and legs were broken. When found thirteen hours after falling he was unconscious and suffering from concussion of the brain, and it is not believed that he will survive.

Vicious Assault on Boy.

Elkins, W. Va., June 14.—Murrill Howell, aged 14 years, was bound and gagged and thrown into a box car by a middle-aged man, who escaped. After robbing the youth the shabby dressed stranger mistreated him.

The Lawyer's Business.

A Scotsman got himself into some legal difficulty and went to consult a solicitor. After he had heard his client's story the solicitor was still doubtful whether he had got all the facts.

"Now, are you sure you've told me the whole truth?" he asked.

"Ay, oh, ay!" was the reply. "I've told you the whole truth. I thought ye'd be better able to put in the lees yersel'."

Queer Handshakes.

Joseph Jefferson and Wilton Lackaye were one season in the same company. It was the custom of Mr. Jefferson to take curtain calls and make a speech to the audience. He liked it, the audience liked it, and everybody but Lackaye liked it. Lackaye contended that no actor should step out of his part and make a curtain speech.

One night Mr. Jefferson made his speech and afterward happened to pass Lackaye as he was going to his dressing rooms.

"Well, Wilton," Jefferson said, "how did I do tonight?"

"Oh," Lackaye replied, "it was the same old story. You went out there and made the usual blunder."

"Blunder?" Jefferson exclaimed. "What blunder did I make?"

"Why," Lackaye replied, "you said, 'As I look into your faces I feel that I should like to shake hands with each and every one.'"

"What's wrong with that?" Jefferson demanded.

"Wrong with it?" Lackaye retorted. "It's absurd. John Drew's face is the only one I ever saw that you could shake hands with."—Saturday Evening Post.

Beginning Friday, June 16th, 1911

FOR THE BALANCE OF THE MONTH OF JUNE, the people of this city and vicinity are to have the greatest money saving opportunity that the month of June ever presented.

The BIG SUMMER SALE

in a large store like this, and especially in the store where fashion and freshness are so manifestly important, each department finds much that must be sold. Just as the farmer watches the growth of his crop, likewise have we watched the diminishing of our stocks in order to harvest our gain. Much to our disappointment, in going over the various departments, we find more goods than should be on hand. These goods may be ever so desirable to you, but to us broken assortments and odds and ends are a burden and a hindrance to ideal store service.

Rousing, Ringing, Economy News From Every Section and Corner of This Store

Stocks demand immediate sweeping relief. Enormous quantities of goods must be sold to clear our shelves. We do not hesitate to say half price in many instances and in many cases they are less than half price.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO. Toledo, Oo.

LOOK TOO MUCH LIKE HASHERIES

Expert Opinion on Many Modern Drugstores.

A REFORM IS DEMANDED

President of Indiana Pharmaceutical Association Insists That a Drug Store Should Be a Drug Store, and Not a Lunch Counter—In Address to Association He Cites a Particular Case in Point.

Indianapolis, June 15.—“Some drug stores look so much like lunchrooms it is difficult to tell, sometimes, whether a store is a drug store or a ‘hashery,’” said J. R. Mutz of Edinburg, president of the Indiana Pharmaceutical association, at the convention of the association. Mr. Mutz said, in his annual address, that he was at a certain city not long ago, and that he dropped into several drug stores to look around, and to see how they did things. In one store, he said, there was a lunch counter running nearly the full length of one side of the room, where a customer could get anything from a patent leather sandwich to a full meal. Also there was a long soda water counter. On the opposite side, at the front, was an extensive cigar department, and back of that was the merchandise and sundries department. Then at the rear, nearly out of sight, was the drug department, hidden behind everything else. And yet, he said, this store wore a big sign in front announcing it was a drug store.

FIGHT IS REOPENED ON DEEP WATERWAYS

Illinois Special Session Promises Long Wrangle.

Springfield, Ill., June 15.—One of the bitterest fights in Illinois in recent years is expected to result from the special session of the legislature, convened here by Governor Deneen to consider the bill providing for the expenditure of $20,000,000 for deep waterways from Chicago to the Gulf of Mexico. The break between Governor Deneen and Speaker Adkins, who refused to permit the bill to come to a vote at the regular session, threatens to become wider.

In a special message Governor Deneen pleaded for state control of state water sites, to prevent the interests from availing themselves of the vast wealth which they have contributed nothing to create. The bill provides for deepening the Illinois and Des Plaines, contingent with the Mississippi. It has the approval of President Taft.

SEÑOR CASTRO IN BAD AGAIN

Exiled Venezuelan Hunted By All the Nations.

NOBODY SEEMS TO LOVE HIM

Exiled From His Own Country and Harried About the Seas Until He Found Secret Refuge in Europe, This Stormy Petrel of the Caribbean Is Again Seeking a Foothold on Western Land.

Washington, June 15.—In case they actually come upon Cipriano Castro, former president of Venezuela, who was driven into exile, state department officials are about as greatly puzzled over the question of what to do as they were in the first place over how to rid the western continent of him. It has been decided that one of the gunboats now in the Caribbean shall be ordered to Hayti to take a look at the converted gunboat Consul Grostock, that is officially reported as having Castro on board. Since this ship arrived at Port De Paix Tuesday the state department has consulted by cable with the foreign governments interested, and an understanding has been reached that in case of Castro endeavoring to land action similar to that taken at Trinidad shall be resorted to. About two years ago, shortly after Castro had been driven out of Venezuela, he was found on a French tramp steamer heading for his native land. President Gomez of Venezuela informed the powers that he would be able to take care of the exile if a landing were attempted, and the French government agreed to his arrest if he left the ship at La Guayra. Castro suddenly turned in at Trinidad, however, and the British government, acting on the agreement, pushed him on out to sea, so to speak.

From there he went to Martinique, which was presumably a port of call of the steamer, and he was denied a landing by the French authorities there. From there he drifted back across the Atlantic and was reported to have made his way secretly from the Canary Islands up through Europe, where he is supposed to have financed the present expedition for the purpose of overthrowing President Gomez, who succeeded him.

President Simon of Hayti is considerably perturbed over the situation. According to a cable from there, received at the state department from Minister Furness, a gunboat has been sent from Port Au Prince to meet the Consul Grostock, which left Port De Paix Tuesday for Port Au Prince. It is thought the American gunboat will be able to assist in identifying the proper nationality of the ship on which Castro is coasting about as a soldier of fortune, but it has not been decided as to what action can be taken by the American vessel, even if Castro is sufficiently identified and the ship is found to be flying the German flag without authority.

Since France, Great Britain, Holland and Germany are all agreed with the United States that Castro shall not be allowed to land in the neighborhood of Venezuela on the ground that he is an undesirable citizen, it seems reasonably certain that he will not have the opportunity for some time to come of stirring up a revolution to gain the ascendancy in his native country.

Castro's predicament, it appears, will be almost as sad as that of a castaway on a desert island waiting for a ship to pick him up—he will be a castaway at sea with land, land everywhere, but no place to get ashore.

Confirmed Without Debate.
Washington, June 15.—The threatened opposition to the confirmation of William H. Lewis, colored, of Boston, as assistant attorney general in the department of justice, in charge of Indian depredations claims, disappeared in the executive session of the senate and the nomination was confirmed in the most perfunctory manner without debate or a demand for a roll call.

Mosque Sheiks on Trial.

CIPRIANO CASTRO

Stormy Petrel of the Caribbean Vainly Seeking a Landing Place.

CENTRAL AMERICA IS IN A FERMENT

Biggest Row in Its History Is Brewing.

New Orleans, June 15.—Cable and wireless advices from Central American points and orders received here by United States secret service men seem to color the belief that Central America is on the eve of the greatest upheaval it has ever known. The orders to the secret service were to redouble vigilance to prevent filibustering expeditions leaving this and other gulf ports.

Meanwhile Juan J. Estrada, former president of Nicaragua and leader of one successful rebellion, is speeding to New Orleans aboard the steamer Heredia. Before leaving Guatemala City he held several long conferences with President Cabrera, then issued a formal denial of revolutionary plans or of any general revolutionary plot. It is said that he is enroute to Washington to confer with the state department officials about the future of his country. Prominent Latin-Americans here assert that this is but a ruse and that Estrada's purpose is to arrange for the shipment of arms and ammunition to supply his prospective army. Dr. Policarpo Bonilla, former president of Honduras, has left here, stating that he is going to Washington to oppose the Morgan loan. While there it is known that he will have other facts to lay before someone, just whom, however, is what is keeping Central Americans guessing. With Castro in the offing, United States government employees have still another source of concern. Castro's supposed agents here are busy holding secret conferences, and an order for 3,000 rifles, the second big consignment recently purchased by a prominent hardware man, has just been placed.

MR. KNOX UNABLE TO GIVE DETAILS

Mystery Still Surrounds Long Lost Voucher.

HOW WAS IT RETURNED?

Question That Has Been Puzzling Congressional Committee Investigating the Affairs of the State Department Is Still Unanswered—Mr. Knox Explains How Young Mr. Hale Came Into That $5,000.

Washington, June 15.—As he seated himself in the witness chair before the house committee on expenditures in the state department, Secretary Knox's greeting to Chairman Hamlin was: “You've played this up in first-class style; if you ever get out of congress you ought to manage a theatrical company.” Mr. Knox was referring particularly to the chairman's conduct of the inquiry into the so-called Day portrait case. Mr. Knox thereupon laid before the committee the long lost voucher for $2,450 and other documents in the case that have mysteriously reappeared after having been missing for five years.

The documents submitted by Secretary Knox throw no definite light upon the final disposition of the $1,600 that was paid out by the treasury on the voucher over and beyond the $850 charged by Albert Rosenthal, the Philadelphia artist, for painting the portrait of William R. Day, then secretary of state and now justice of the supreme court. Artist Rosenthal submitted a bill for only $850, and signed a voucher in blank, which was filled in for $2,450 without Rosenthal's knowledge.

A letter from W. H. Michael, who was chief of the state department at the time and who received the $2,450, says that the difference of $1,600 was turned over to Secretary of State John Hay to pay confidential accounts of the department, as he recalls it, in connection with Chinese affairs. The entire $2,450 was drawn from a fund authorized by congress for expenditures of a confidential character, and for which the secretary of state is required to make no public accounting. Mr. Michael adds that the signing of the voucher by Rosenthal must have been an inadvertence, as it was to have been signed by Michael himself. Mr. Michael is now consul at Calcutta. Secretary Knox acknowledged that the only information the department had as to what had become of the $1,600 was Mr. Michael's own statement.

As to the mysterious finding of the voucher on the floor of the disbursing clerk's room in the state department after it had been missing for years, Mr. Knox could give no explanation. On this point he could throw no more light than the office boy who found the document. The voucher was withdrawn from the department's file about five years ago, when Elihu Root, then secretary of state, undertook an investigation of the Day portrait case.

Mr. Knox explained the payment of $5,000 to Frederick Hale, a son of former Senator Eugene Hale. He declared that Mr. Hale, who is a lawyer in Maine, was retained by Mr. Root when he was secretary of state, to conduct diplomatic negotiations with Great Britain for determining the boundary lines between the United States and Canada through Passamaquoddy bay. This Secretary Knox said was a diplomatic matter and had nothing to do with the work of the regular boundary commission. Mr. Knox acknowledged that the voucher for the Hale payment of $5,000 lacked regularity in that it was not signed by him, but merely bore his O. K. on a separate slip of paper. As to the payment itself however, it was, Mr. Knox declared, entirely regular and proper, and members of the committee showed no disposition to question this statement.

SHIPPERS COMPLAIN

Grain Dealers Denounce Practice of Inspectors at Terminals.

Bloomington, Ill., June 15.—At the eighteenth annual convention of the Illinois Grain Dealers' association held here, criticism was made of the practice at Chicago and St. Louis terminals of obligating the shipper to guarantee the grade of grain until it is unloaded, regardless of railroad delay. The practice of inspectors indiscriminately marking cars, “subject to future inspection, too full,” was denounced.

J. R. Pickell of Chicago declared the grain dealer who pays too much for grain or pays a uniform price for all grades of grain is just as much assured of eternal perdition as the buyer who pays too little.

A Useless Ordinance.
Oakland City, Ind., June 15.—The council has ordered the time-honored custom of sounding curfew discontinued on account of the annoyance of the siren whistle and the fact that no attention was paid to it.

Again Heads International Woman's Suffrage Alliance.

Stockholm, June 15.—The address Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, its president, delivered at the sixth congress of the International Woman's Suffrage alliance is to be translated into the languages of all civilized lands and given a worldwide distribution. Funds to defray the expense were voted by acclamation. Mrs. Catt has been re-elected president of the international alliance.

PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF HONDURAN TREATY

State Department Believes This Will Be Best.

Washington, June 15.—The treaty between the United States and Honduras, which provides for the refunding of the foreign debt of Honduras through the aid of Wall street bankers, was reported to the senate in executive session. A motion was made by Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan to have the treaty made public and the debate upon it proceeded in open session of the senate. This motion was simply entered and will be considered as pending to be acted upon at some future executive session. The threatened outbreak from senators who were absent from the committee meeting when the vote was taken on the motion to report the treaty favorably did not materialize. There was no criticism indulged in.

The officers of the state department have expressed themselves as unopposed to the public discussion of the treaty. They believe that the removal of the seal of secrecy and the public discussion of the convention will lead to a better understanding by the public of its provisions and result in removing much of the opposition to it in the popular mind. The state department thinks the treaty can be successfully defended. It is certain there will be a long and earnest debate on the question of ratification, and there is very little hope expressed that final action will be reached before the adjournment of the extra session.

It Has Not Yet Become Serious.

London, June 15.—The seamen's strike has spread from London, Glasgow and South Shields to Middlesbrough, Belfast, Bristol, Cardiff, Swansea, Manchester and Newcastle. Whether the strike will become serious cannot yet be told. The leaders have ordered the men not to break existing engagements, hence the strike, if it continues, will not reach a maximum for quite a while.

A Double Drowning.

The Civic League in planning to establish children's play grounds in the city parks, has joined in a movement which is gaining favor in many of the smaller cities. The larger cities have long been supporting such places of recreation and amusement for the young.

Columbus is among the smaller cities which this year fell into line for play grounds. An association has been formed there and a considerable amount of money has been raised for the support of a play ground. Considerable apparatus has been purchased and a young woman from Providence, R. I., who has been educated especially for such work, has been engaged at a good salary as supervisor of the play ground. She will devote all her time to looking after the children and directing the games.

The Civic League deserves commendation for its efforts in this direction and for the interest it takes in beautifying the city. It is entitled to the support of the city council in its plans for improving the park.
